- i Augustine
 - 23 in 1850, b Wisconsin; b 1828 (The Wisconsin Creoles, p.201)
 - Since the defendants in the mortgage foreclosure case against the heirs of Augustin Bisson Senior are (with one exception) listed in order of age, and Augustin Bisson Junior is listed first, we assume that he is the same as the oldest child in the 1850 census. The Wisconsin Creoles states that this child died in 1838, and that there was another Augustin born in 1851 (p.201). At the time of the lawsuit in 1872, he and his wife are reported to be living in Ontario north of Lake Superior.

Grignon, Augustin. "Seventy-Two Years' Recollections of Wisconsin." Third Annual Report and Collections of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin for the Year 1856, pp.195-295.

Green Bay Advocate, Thursday, 9 January 1862

Another old Settler Gone.--Old familiar faces are paling beneath the stroke of the Destroyer, and the now fruitful soil of Wisconsin is closing over the forms of those who trod upon it when it was covered by an unbroken forest.--The men who laid the foundations and hewed the solid timbers of this now great and prosperous state, having done their work well, are gathering their robes about them, and taking their canoes for the spirit land. The last will soon be gone. We have this week to record the death of DOMINICK BRUNETTE, Sen., at Duck Creek (5 miles from this city), on Sunday, Dec., 19th. Mr. B. was 83 years old. He came to Green Bay, from Montreal, in 1798, at the age of 19 years, and has resided here ever since--64 years. He was for many years an Indian trader, but of late a farmer; and has always been a sober and industrious man.

The Bay City Press, 11 January 1862

DIED.
