#47

Maria Rosine Wunsche or Rosine Marie Wunsche

She was usually known as Maria or Mary, but had a second name Rosine. In the passenger list she appears as Maria R., in the record of her daughter Henriette's second marriage, just the name Rosine appears. Henry Bieck's family history calls her Rosalind Marie Wunsche, but Rosine is more likely than Rosalind.

Much of the information on this person is derived from her gravestone, which is now difficult to decipher. The inscription was copied by the Manitowoc County Old Cemetery Society in the 1970s, and I have accepted their determinations. I assume Henry Bieck copied the inscription as his source for the information in his family history compiled in 1955. Henry Bieck gives the birth year as 1805, which may be an error, since other sources for her birth date make 1803 more likely.

In addition, the Old Cemetery Society's collection reads her birthplace on the stone as "Bebnansdorf Preussen". The Grabs family was from Ober Neundorf <see above>, and it's possible that "Bebnansdorf" on the gravestone actually reads "Ober Neundorf".
